“ Ed was such a giving loving soul and we were honored to be his friend. Ed would do anything for anyone including us which we are so grateful. My husband is going to miss Ed stories and their shared friendship including rescuing dogs together. Ed was such a "top shelf" guy who could not be matched by anyone with his generosity. His will be sorely missed. Now you can rest Ed in the arms of our Lord Jesus. Michael & Pam Haywood

“ Papi was a talker like me, he loved to talk. He was a builder, plumber, a/c replair, mechanic, he was everything. He loved building bird houses, frames, boxes, with christopher. I don't believe papi had one mean bone in his body, if ya made him mad he sure would let you know lol. We love you Ed, Dad, Papi, you will forever be in our hearts, and memories. 57 was to young, God only takes the best ones.....

“ Ed was always so quick with a story, joke, or smile. Besides talking, he was a good listener and one of the kindest men I have ever met. He was always so quick to respond to requests for help, even if he was very busy. His love and care for his family and stray animals, especially ones with special needs, was pretty much unparalleled. I've never met anyone like him and I very much enjoyed the small amount of time I would get to spend with him every year. I'm so sad that he is no longer with us. He truly was a good man. Sending love to all his family and friends.
